

BEGINNER'S WOODWORKING CLASS

This class is designed for beginners of almost all ages and covers the safe and proper use of a table saw, planer and other common power tools while making a beautiful side table. After completing this class, you will have basic woodworking skills and the pride that comes from building something yourself!

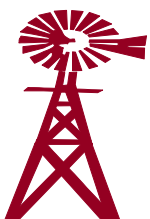

Instructor Tracy Gray is a professional cabinetmaker and professor who has been teaching this popular class for over a decade.

$155 cost for class includes all materials (wood, screws, equipment, glue, etc.)
